

Teacher Engagement Keynote

Olivia Odileke

“This was the absolute BEST zoom meeting I have had all summer. The speaker was absolutely engaging, and I felt her energy as if she was right in my room. I am excited to start applying these strategies.~ MUSKEGON MIDDLE SCHOOL

Speaking topics

- Academic Engagement over Engagement
- Simple Strategies for Optimal Virtual Learning
- Using Nearpod to Support Remote Learning

note: every speech is customized!

Background

Olivia Odileke loves making Ed Tech and virtual teaching easier for teachers. For over 10 years she worked as an educator at Title I schools in Florida. She serves as a national Teacher Trainer for the online school K12. She has personally trained over 3,000 teachers and continues to seek ways to innovate education. She is a Certified Trainer for Nearpod and has served as a HMH Regional Math Consultant. She also has written over 30 published lessons for Cpalms.org, Nearpod, and Pearson. She holds a M.Ed in Instructional Technology. All of her experience has led her to becoming an expert in virtual education and the tech tools educators can use to drive student learning and curiosity.

“ Our #1 reason for feeling overwhelm is Fear. Learn How to become a fearless educator and build confidence in doing what is most important! ”
